Notable and Newsworthy

Kristina Penniston, PhD, RDN, scientist in the Department since 2005, has been elected President of the Research on Calculus Kinetics (ROCK) Society. Elected into the Society in 2009, she served as Secretary-Treasurer from 2018-2023. The ROCK Society's mission is to further the investigation of calculi and reach a better understanding of the basic mechanisms involved. Society membership currently numbers around 100 individuals. It is the premiere scientific organization in the US dedicated to the study of kidney stone formation, management, and prevention and includes many of the world's leading stone experts among its members.

Drs. Sara Best, Sarah McAchran, and Daniel Williams served as faculty for this year's American Urological Association's (AUA) Oral Board Review Course.

Dr. Sarah McAchran has recently been selected as a North Central Section of the American Urological Association (NCS AUA) representative to the AUA Advocacy Committee and will be attending the AUA Advocacy Summit in Washington, DC.

UW Urology Recognizes our Women Physicians

February 3, 2023 marked the sixth annual National Women Physicians Day on the 202nd birthday of Elizabeth Blackwell – the first woman to earn a medical degree in America. An inspiration and a true pioneer, Blackwell's perseverance and dedication blazed a trail for countless women.

In honor of this important day, we would like to recognize and thank the women physicians on our faculty and in our residency program for their strength, determination, and leadership – and for the outstanding care they provide to our patients every day!

Row 1: Drs. Sarah McAchran, Sara Best, Ruthie Su, Vinaya Bhatia, Shannon Cannon, Margaret Knoedler
Row 2: Drs. Marissa Falkiewicz, Jordan Krieger, Emily Serrell, Rachael Sherrer, Zoe Blumenthal, Emily Davidson
Row 3: Drs. Emily Ellmann, Megan Roedel, Lisa Teixeira
